WASHINGTON (INA).
The Arab League Boycott
Office has notified U.S. officials that three American freighters will henceforth bbarred from all Arab seaports because the ships traded with Lerael.

The Office made clear that the blockade is being tightened and that any American ship discovered trading with Israel will be punished by being immediately blacklisted.

The three newest additions to the blacklist were the Imeda, 7,209 tons, Marine Voyager, 7,607 tons and Exanthia, 5,553 tons.

The American ship Courer d'Alene Victory, 7,645 tons, was removed from the blacklist on assurance of its owners that it would obey the boycott, the Office announced.

Moslem Trust Lays Claim To Large Chunk of Jerusalem

A large chunk of Western Jerusalem, including the site of the new Modical Centre at Eth Karem, is being claimed by a Moslem religious trust (Wakf) on the basis of a 618-year-old document now located in Turkish government archives at Istanbul.

The disputed land comprises 75 separate blocs covering about 150,000 dunam, whose estimated value totals being handled by the Municipality for development and building.

The claim has been submitted to the Jerusalem District Court by a Jerusalem District Court by a Jerusalem lawyer, Mr. S. A. Szcaupak. He is acting on a power of attorney signed before the French Consul in the Old City by two Araba who declared themselves administrators of the Abu Median Wakf, which also owns the quarter where the Wailing Wall is situated.

"Millions of pounds can be spent on improvements but we won't be able to do awa with alums altogether, unless we succeed in persuading the residents to move out as provent further resident from entering and aquating." Dr. Josephthal warns He concluded by hoping that the slum dwellers would

The bogus Oath, used in the 1928 campaign (against the Catholic Democratic Presidential candidate, Al Smith) and again in this year's West Virginia primary, states that fourth-degree Knights must pledge themselves to "wage relemiless war, secretly and openly, against all heretics, Protestants and Masons and its extraction of the earth without regard to age, sex or condition by hanging, burning, boiling, strangling, burning, boiling, strangling, burning, alive..." etc.

The Jackson letter states that "a number of persons have been found guilty of eriminal libel for publishing the same and the highest courts of various states have Sir. — May I make one small correction in your report of my speech at the Israel-British Commonwealth dinner (your issue of November 4)?

I did not say that the Suez flasce had brought to an end Britain's power position in the world. I said that it had brought to an end our independent power position—particularly in the Middle East; and that in future. British power would have to be exercised in close collaboration with the United States, through the medium of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.
